Course Goals:

This course is designed as a survey of the religious traditions in Ireland from 3000 BCE – 800 CE. Besides learning about the divinities and ritual practices of the Irish people from the Neolithic to the early Modern Period, we will focus on the historical and cultural development that provides the necessary background to understanding the complex religious history of Ireland. At the end of the course students should be able to:

- 1) Identify the major religious themes of Neolithic Irish culture;
- 2) Explain the difficulties associated with identifying the Celtic Culture;
- 3) Identify the major deities and ritual practices of Celtic religion in Ireland;
- 4) Identify the origins of Christianity in Ireland
- 5) Explain the role of monasticism in the conversion Ireland to Christianity
- 4) Describe and critically evaluate the role of Irish Christianity in early Medieval Europe;
- 5) Explain the role of mythology in the “Celtic Revival”;
- 6) Identify examples of religious transformation and syncretism in Ireland.

Course Requirements:

Attendance - students are required to attend class as scheduled. Absences are excused in the case of illness (standard proof of illness is required) or other College sanctioned activities (see student handbook for details). If you know you will be absent on an exam day please make arrangements to take the exam early. There will be no make-up exams for unexcused absences. If you miss an exam for any reason, please contact me immediately!

Tardiness – I am not particularly offended by tardiness (after all, you are paying for this course). I understand that sometimes factors beyond our control conspire to make us late. If you are late to class, come on in and find a place to sit. However, please be courteous to your classmates and do not make a disturbance if you are late. Finally, please do not allow tardiness to become a habit.

Grades - will be figured on the following basis:

1. Exams: Midterm and Final, each worth 100 points.
2. Pop Quizzes: 10 points each

Statement on Plagiarism/Academic Misconduct – Due to the proliferation of academic material available on the internet, plagiarism is on the rise in American academic institutions. Plagiarism is the use of two or more consecutive words from someone else’s written work without proper citation, or passing off someone else’s words as your own. Plagiarism includes paraphrasing someone else’s work without giving proper citation of the source material. Plagiarism is theft of intellectual property and WILL NOT BE TOLLERATED.

Academic misconduct is a more general term for cheating of any variety. Obviously, the assignments you turn in should reflect YOUR OWN work, and any attempt to circumvent this process is harmful. Therefore, any plagiarized, or otherwise academically inappropriate assignment will receive an automatic 0 (or F), and the assignment cannot be made up or replaced. If two or more assignments are plagiarized or the product of academic misconduct in the course of a semester, the offending student may receive an automatic F for the course.

Student Responsibilities :

Students with Disabilities – It is the policy of Mesa Community College, in compliance with the Americans with Disabilities Act, to offer reasonable accommodations to students with disabilities. If you are disabled and need accommodation you should contact the MCC Student Disabilities Office (MCC Disabilities Resources and Services Office at 480-461-7447 or email drsfrontdesk@mesacc.edu) before any assignments are due. It is the student’s responsibility to contact the Student Disabilities Office with any request for special services. Students experiencing difficulty accessing course materials because of a disability should contact the course instructor so that a solution can be found that provides all students equal access to course materials and technology. The DRS Office now also handles pregnancy related absences. If you have a need for pregnancy related accommodations, please contact the DRS Office immediately.

Recording Lectures – The content of course lectures, including, but not limited to, verbal, printed, powerpoint and other electronic communications are the copyrighted property of the professor. Recording class lectures is prohibited without express written consent. If you wish to record lectures, you must see me during office hours and sign a Proprietary Information Agreement.

Dropping/Withdrawal – SAI requires all students to be enrolled in two courses. Dropping below the required number of courses on an MCC Study Abroad Program will result in termination of program participation and expulsion from the program. The student will have to return home at their own expense.

Cell Phones/Pagers – All phones should be placed in the “off” or “standby” position, or your ringer should be silenced in class. Do not send or answer text messages or other online media while in class. Failure to adhere to this policy may result in punitive action.

Instructional Grievance– Students have the right to due-process if they feel they have been treated unfairly by their professor in regard to academic procedures (i.e., grading). Please refer to the process articulated in the Student Handbook § 2.3.5.

Responsibility for Information - Students are responsible for knowing and understanding all information contained in this syllabus. If you do not understand some portion of this document, please contact the professor for clarification. All student rights and responsibilities are governed through the MCC Student Handbook; students should be aware of all policies contained therein.

FINAL Exam

COVENANT ON CLASS DECORUM

1. I shall refrain from making personal attacks upon fellow interlocutors; likewise, I will not mistake an attack upon an argument I present as a personal attack.
2. I reserve the right to disagree with any argument on any subject regardless of whether or not it reflects my own, or the majority opinion. In like manner, I will not assume that an argument presented by a classmate or the professor necessarily represents their personal opinion.
3. I hereby agree to disagree agreeably so as to avoid personal injury or vendettas.
4. I reserve the right to participate in class discussions and arguments, and I shall endeavor to engage ideas and opinions that differ from my own thus enhancing my academic pilgrimage.
5. I hereby agree not to pout about or refrain from engaging arguments that seem weak or problematic. I accept as part of my academic responsibility the obligation to speak up whether I agree or disagree.
6. I reserve the right to take all classroom grievances to the person with whom I have the grievance, regardless of whether it is a student or the professor (if we cannot work out the problem there is an official grievance process which we can follow – details are in your student handbook).
7. I shall attempt to be open to, and respect all persons in the classroom even when we disagree.
8. I shall, to the best of my ability, respect and incorporate the maxims of this covenant and endeavor to uphold my end of all agreements made herein.

If you do not feel that you can live up to the terms of this agreement, you should drop this course immediately!
